FIRST DAY

(Tuesday, January 11, 1977)

In accordance with the Constitution and Laws of the State of Texas, the Senate of the Sixty-fifth Legislature met in the Senate Chamber of the State Capitol on Tuesday, the eleventh day of January, 1977, at 12:00 o'clock noon.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE SUPREME COURT

The following Communication received from the Supreme Court was read and was referred to Committee on State Affairs, Sub-Committee on Nominations:

June 22, 1976

Honorable William P. Hobby
Lieutenant Governor of Texas
State Senate
Capitol Building
Austin, Texas 78711

Dear Governor Hobby:

On March 17, 1976, the Supreme Court of Texas appointed Justice Esco Walter, Justice of the 11th Court of Civil Appeals, Eastland, Texas, and Judge Darrell B. Hester, 197th Judicial District, Brownsville, Texas, to be members of the State Judicial Qualifications Commission for the balance of the six year terms which began Nov. 19, 1975, and which expire Nov. 19, 1981.

Justice Esco Walter, who resides in Eastland County, succeeds Justice Homer E. Stephenson. Judge Darrell Hester, who resides in Cameron County, succeeds Judge Howard C. Davison.

The new appointees executed their oath of office on May 8, 1976, and their Commissions were duly issued by the Secretary of State.

Sincerely,

Joe R. Greenhill
Chief Justice
Supreme Court of Texas

COMMUNICATIONS FROM COURT OF CRIMINAL APPEALS

The following Communications from the Court of Criminal Appeals were read and were referred to the Committee on State Affairs, Sub-Committee on Nominations.

October 22, 1975

Honorable Charles Schnabel
Secretary of Senate
State Senate
Capitol Building
Austin, Texas 78711

Dear Mr. Schnabel:

Please be advised that under the provisions of Article IV, Section 11, of the State Constitution I have appointed Mr. Paul F. Cromwell, Jr., P. O. Box 1250, Huntsville, Texas 77340 (713/295-4574), to the Board of Pardons and Paroles following the resignation of Mr. Charles G. Shandera. Mr. Cromwell is appointed for the unexpired term which will expire February 1, 1979. Please be further advised that following Mr. Shandera's resignation I was able to persuade him to remain within the parole system and I have appointed him as a Parole Commissioner under the provisions of Senate Bill 240 of the 64th Legislature. He replaces Mr. Cromwell, who is now a Parole Commissioner, and Mr. Cromwell's term would expire September 1, 1981. This is by virtue of the fact that my two appointments as Parole Commissioners were for a period of six years. Please see my letter of September 2, 1975.

Sincerely yours,

John F. Onion, Jr.
Presiding Judge
Court of Criminal Appeals

September 3, 1975

Honorable Charles Schnabel
Secretary of Senate
State Senate
Capitol Building
Austin, Texas 78711

Dear Mr. Schnabel:

Please be advised that I have appointed the following individuals as Parole Commissioners under the provisions of Senate Bill 240 of the 64th Legislature:

Paul F. Cromwell, Jr.
3011 Belvoir
San Antonio, Texas 78230

Paul J. Mansmann, Sr.
3920 Willow Bend Road
Fort Worth, Texas 76116

These appointments are for terms of six years. In accordance with the provisions of Senate Bill 240 the Governor, Chief Justice Greenhill and I drew for terms of office. The Governor drew the four year terms, Chief Justice Greenhill drew the two year terms and I drew the six year terms. It is my belief that those appointments by myself and those by Chief Justice Greenhill are not subject to confirmation by the Senate. Senate Bill 240 has no provision for confirmation and I find no general statutory or constitutional provision requiring every appointment by the Chief Justice or the Presiding Judge of the Court of Criminal Appeals to be subject to the confirmation by the Senate. While the Members of the Board of Pardons and Paroles must have their appointments confirmed, this is due to the express constitutional provision creating the Board of Pardons and Paroles. It does appear that Governor Briscoe's appointments to the Parole Commissioners must be confirmed, but this is due to the general constitutional provision that all appointments by the Governor must be confirmed. While it seems a little odd that some of the Commissioners must be confirmed and others not, that appears to be the status of the law in my opinion.

Sincerely yours,

John F. Onion, Jr.
Presiding Judge
Court of Criminal Appeals

The roll was called and the following Senators were present: Adams, Aikin, Andujar, Bracklein, Brooks, Clower, Creighton, Doggett, Farabee, Hance, Harris, Jones of Harris, Jones of Taylor, Kothmann, Lombardino, Longoria, Mauzy, McKnight, Meier, Mengden, Moore, Ogg, Parker, Patman, Santiesteban, Schwartz, Sherman, Snelson, Traeger and Williams.

Absent-excused: Truan.

A quorum was announced present.

The Reverend Samuel N. Baxter, Good Shepherd Episcopal Church, Austin, Texas, offered the invocation as follows:

We thank Thee, Lord, for the privilege of living and serving in this state. We bless Thee for the liberty, the opportunity, and the abundance we share. And above all we praise Thee for the traditions which have made our nation great. Teach us in our own day the meaning of citizenship, and help us to be faithful stewards of the responsibility which Thou hast entrusted to us.

O Lord our God, if ever we needed Thy wisdom and Thy guidance, it is now - as the Legislature begins a new session, standing upon the threshold of a new year, fraught with so many opportunities. We pray that Thou wilt bless these men and women, chosen by the people of this State, for Thou knowest them, their needs, their motives, their hopes and their fears. O Lord, give them strength and speak to them to give them wisdom greater than their own.

May they hear Thy voice, and seek Thy guidance. May they remember that Thou art concerned about what is said and done here, and may they have clear conscience before Thee, that they may fear no man. Bless each of us according to our deepest need, and use us for Thy glory. We ask all this for Thy Name's sake. Amen.

On motion of Senator Aikin and by unanimous consent, the reading of the Journal of the proceedings of yesterday was dispensed with and the Journal was approved.
